WILSON TO READ HIS MESSAGE

Will Appear With Document at One O'clock Tomorrow.

MAY SUBMIT A DRAFT.

Should Huera Capitulate to Demands of United States, Message May Never be Read.

Washington, Aug. 25. — President Wilson today declared that he will read his special message to a joint session of Congress at 1 oclock tomorrow unless unforeseen and unexpected developments occur in the meantime in Mexico City. A change of front by President Huerta is the only thing which will delay delivery of the message.

Having completed the message which he has intended to read to Congress tomorrow on the Mexican situation, President Wilson may submit a draft of the communication this evening to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations. On the other hand, he may not read the message at all.

The decision depends on developments in Mexico today. If President Huerta capitulates to the demands of this country, backed by the persistent pressure of other foreign governments, and agrees to resign as provisional president, it is probable that the message will never be read.

Administration officials were hopeful this morning that before nightfall definite news will come from the Mexican capital that Huerta has agreed to the proposals made by President Wilson for an early and peaceful solution of the civil war. As yet, however, the Mexican ruler has failed to take any definite step in this direction.

The most he has done to encourage optimism is to encourage a continuation of the conferences between John Lind, the President's envoy in Mexico City,and the Mexican foreign minister. The great encouragement has come from Europe where Huerta has failed at every turn to raise money for his muttering regiments, but where, at every turn, he has met with suggestions that he accept the proposals of President Wilson.

DEATH OF CAPT. BALDWIN.

Well-Known Resident of East Radford, Passes Away.

East Radford, Va., Aug. 25.—Captain W. T. Baldwin, chairman of the board of trustees of the Radford Normal School, died esterday morning. He was in his sixty-ninth year.

The deceased was born in Christiansburg, and lived the early part of his wife in Wytheville, and in Tazewell. He was but a boy when he went with the Wythe Grays, which were ordered to Harpers Ferry at the time of the ohn Brown episode. He served in the war with the Wythe Grays, Fourth Virginia infantry, Stonewall Brigade.He was for some time on the staff of General Breckenridge, and later on that of General McCausland.

FOUR RELIGIOUS EVENTS.

Next Few Months Will be Time of Activity in Danville Churches.

Danville, Va., Aug. 25.—During the next four months there will be much religious activity in Danville, four of the greatest events of the year being scheduled to take place here. First of all will come the revival meeting, which will be held by Gypsy Smith, the noted evangelist, from September 14 to 24, and which will doubtless attract state-wide attention. In October the Presbyterian Synod of Virginia will meet here, with many of the State's leading ministers in attendence. In the middle of November the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, will hold an eight day series of meetings, with one or more of the bishops and many delegates here. In December the State Laymen's Missionary Conference will assemble here.

M'DERMOTT'S DEFENSE

Former Secretary Says He Never Saw or Heard of Mulhall

Washington, Aug. 25.—Congressman James T. McDermott, of Illinois, today began the introduction of his defense before the House lobby investigating committee, when Arthur West, of Dayton, Ohio, took the stand.

Mr. West was two years secretary to the Illinois Congressman, and was called as a witness by McDermott, to refute certain of the McMichael charges.

West said he was secretary to Congressman McDermott from December, 1907, until Agust 1909, and that McMichael had not acted as secretary during that time.

"Did you ever see Colonel Mulhall in Mr. McDermott's office? asked Chairman Garrett.

"I saw Colonel Mulhall for the first time yesterday," said West.

The witness said that after severing his connection with McDermott he went to work on a Chicago newspaper, returning to Washington in March 1911, where he remained until September, 1912.

"Who was McDermott's secretary during this latter period?" he was asked.

"His present secretary, Miss Blakely."

"During that period did you ever see or hear Colonel Mulhall?"

"I never did," said West, who explained that he saw McDermott frequently during his second stay in Washington.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

The annual reunion of the Sons of Confederate Veterans will meet in Roanoke September 17, 18 and 19 in connection with the meeting of the state encampment of Confederate Veterans. Delegates to the latter organization will be elected at a meeting of R. E. Lee Camp on September 1. The Sons of Veterans will also be represented at the meeting.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Charged with jewel thefts which aggregate $50,000, Harry E. Simonin, alleged social highwayman, was arrested yesterday in the surf at Atlantic City. William Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the complainant, and pointed out Simonin, who was in a bathing suit, to the police. Siminin, known as as "Baron de Dillon," "Baron Heri," and "Kid" Davis, was charged robbing the home of William Oliver, at 4034 Spruce street, Philadelphia, of diamonds and jewelry worth $60,000.

Millard Mastin, Saturday night at Mount Olivet, Ky., shot and killed William Dayton, one of the leaders of a mob which tried to hang him after he had been acquitted of a serious charge. The mob kroke into Mastin's home and had knocked down the door of his bedroom when Mastin fired with a shot gun. The charge struck Dayton in the breast and killed him instantly. Mastin was taken to Maysville for safekeeping.

Two youths and one young woman were drowned yesterday afternoon when a canoe from which they were watching a balloon ascension at Lake Goguac, Mich., capsized.

Hanging from a hook in the doorway of his room, the body of Jacob L. Levy, a salesman, 35 years old, was found yesterday by his brother, William Levy, of 910 Seventh street northeast, Washington, with whom the suicide lived. Levy had made a noose of a trunk strap, fastened it in the top of the doorway, and jumped off a chair. He was dead when his brother cut him down. Melancholia, brought on by a long illness is said to have been the cause of Levy's act.

Matthew Maury Corbin, aged 36, of Berkeley, Cal., whose mind it is supposed, was affected by a serious illness, jumped from the window of a hospital at Charleston, W. Va., yesterday and was instantly killed. He was a descendant of Governor Spottswood the first executive of Virginia, and was related to Commodore Maury the geographer. Mr. Corbin held an important position with the General Electric Company.

WOMAN CHOKED BY A BURGLAR

Washington Woman Has Terrible Experience At Her Home.

SEARCH FOR JEWELRY.

Scuffle With Intruder Awakens Husband Who Finds Wife Unconscious on The Floor.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Awakened this morning at 4 o'clock by a noise made by a burglar, whom she discovered ransacking the drawers of her dresser in the bedroom of their home, 19 Fifteenth street northeast, Mrs. Pearl Cauffman jumped from her bed and grappled with the intruder. He dropped a lot of jewelry he had taken from the dresser and seized the woman by the throat.

A struggle followed ,the burglar finally forcing the woman to the floor insensible. As she fell a wooden stool was overturned and a metal shoe spoon fell, awakening Mr. Cauffman, who was asleep in the bed left of Mrs. Cauffmann.

Mr. Cauffman leaped from the bed just as the burglar left the room. He found his wife unconscious on the floor and thought that she had fainted. As soon as he had revived his wife and she had told him of the struggle he gave the alarm, but the burglar had made his escape.

The thief took $39 from Mr. Cauffman's trousers, $3.40 from a purse of Mrs. Cauffman and $6.60 from a bank of the children of the family. A quantity of jewelry as also taken.

WANT HEAD FOR CHURCH.

Some Episcopalians Would Have Dignitary Similar to Pope.

New York, Aug. 25.—Shall the Episcopal Church have a pope?

Shall it take a step now that may lead to having one generations hence.

This question will come up in the Episcopal General Convention, meeting in this city in October. It is not so worded but it is so regarded. Bishop Tuttle, of Missouri, has so characterized it, and declares himself opposed to the scheme, and some years ago in a previous general convention, Rev. Dr. W. M. Grosvenor, of this city, a deputy from New York, shouted out the inquiry when the scheme was up:

"Will he be Leo XIV or Pius XI?"

Everybody laughed and the plan for the moment was dead. It is coming up again, and a good many Episcopal leaders think it will pass.

NEGRO KILLS HIS WIFE.

Tragedy Results in Death of Husband Also.

Leaksville, N. C., Aug. 25.—Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock, a negro, Tom Harris, shot and killed his wife and then turned the gun on himself inflicting a wound from which he died within a few minutes.

Harris and his wife had been estranged for some time. Last Friday night he went to the home of his mother-in-law and instructed his wife to return to his home. This she refused to do saying that since he had threatened to kill her previously, she feared he was only seeking an opportunity to take her life.

Harris, realizing that his wife would never return to his home went away procured a shot gun and returned. Once more he asked her whether she would go with him and upon her answer in the negative, he raised the gun and fired, the entire discharge entering her side death resulting instantly. He then sat down immediately in front of her and took his own life, falling across the dead body of his wife.

Harris only recently was released from the chain gang. It is said that his wife had taken up her abode with another man of her own color.

Messrs. V. Ward Boswell and Edmund Hunter, spent the week-end in Winchester.

NEGRO ATTACKS WOMAN

Husband of Victim Appears and is Attacked By Fiend—Assailant Captured

La Plata, Md., Aug. 25.—After a manhunt which lasted all night in the neighborhood of Indian Head, Charles county, Md., William Thomas, a burly negro, was arrested at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Constable Roland J. Carpenter, and was lodged safely in the jail here. He is charged with having brutally assaulted Mrs. Samuel Boswell, wife of a farmer near Indian Head, and also with assaulting Boswell.

Carpenter found the negro in hiding in the woods about ten miles from where the assault took place, and after covering him with a revolver, handcuffed him and spirited him away to a waiting automobile, in which the dash to La Plata, county seat of Chares county, was made.

Thomas is a farmhand and was employed in the Pomonkey neighborhood. Early Saturday night he went to the home of Samuel Boswell, it is said, and after seeing that the farmer was not at home, entered the house and attempted no assault Mrs. Boswell, who is a beautiful woman about 30 years of age. Boswell was at Indian Head attending to some personal business. As told to her husband and neighbors, Mrs. Boswell was in her home leaning over a table when the negro waked up behind her. She was alone in the room, and, with a sound that she described as sounding like a snarl, the husky man seized her, and bending her arms behind her, attempted to assault her.

She resisted with utmost force, and attempted to make an outcry, but the infuriated negro clasped his hand over her mouth. Noise of the scuffle which followed attracted the small children of the Boswell to the room, but they were too young and small to even attempt to help their mother. They only wept. Again and again the woman is said to have beaten off the attacks of the colored man. She tried to sieze something with which she could strike him, but he wrenched and turned her arms so that after a few minutes she was hardly able to raise them.

The scuffle continued for fully 20 minutes, when Boswell entered his home and saw the negro as he was almost about to accompish his purpose. Mrs. Boswell's strength had given away and she was practicaly helpless in the negro's hands. Boswell attacked him and Mrs. Boswell fell to the floor in a swoon.

More infuriated, the negro rushed at Mr. Boswell. The farmer grappled with the burly brute and the fight, which lasted for another 20 minutes, was begun. The men grappled and rolled on the floor and fortunately for Mr. Boswell his assailant was unarmed. The scene in the living-room of the modest little country home was one that perhaps was never before enacted in that section of Maryland. Both men attacked one another, broke loose and reattacked, fully determined to kill if possible. While this was going on Mrs. Boswell lay unconscious on the floor and the three little children looked on and wept with fright.

The negro gradually wore out the strength of the farmer and when he was practically powerless, the half-crazed man insolently declared he would carry out the intention of his visit to the home, while the husband looked on. This seemed to instill a new life in the weakened husband, and he made his way from the room and, obtaining a heavy carving knife, reattacked the colored man.

When Thomas saw that his adversary was armed, he first started to attack him and then ran from the house. He was followed for a short distance by Boswell, but his strength did not last, and Boswell could only sound an alarm that brought scores of his neighbors and associates, as well as medical aid for the unconscious woman.

News of the attempted assault on the woman, who is highly esteemed in that section, where she is known to all, soon spread, and it was not many minutes before several posses were formed and started out to search the woods and surrounding country for the man. Before leaving the Boswell home they obtained rope, pitchforks and guns, and declared they would swing the negro on the tree nearest to where he was caught.

The search continued throughout the night and apparently every inch of the ground within a radius of five miles was thoroughly searched. Houses where it was thought the negro would seek refuge were looked into thoroughly, and even the Navy Yard and boats near there in Potomac river were searched. There was no trace of the man and no one had seen him. Yet the search continued until daybreak, when others took up the manhunt.

About 1 o'clock Constable Carpenter met a man on the road leading into Indian Head, who said he had seen a negro acting in a suspicious manner on the edge of a woods near there. The constable at once surrounded the spot and by beating over every inch of the ground finally located the much-wanted man as he lay in hiding behind a fallen tree. Carpenter had his pistol drawn as he advanced on the negro and he feared Thomas would resist arrest.

The negro was unarmed, however, and when he saw that it would cost him his life if he tried to make another break for liberty, he willingly gave himself up. He pleaded that he be not hanged or turned over to the infuriated crowd which was after him. He even denied that he was the man who had made the assault, but when it was put to him strongly he asked to be quietly put under arrest.

Carpenter walked his captive more than a mile to where he had an automobile in waiting, and, after handcuffing him, put him into the motorcar and started for the county seat of Charles country.

The negro says that liquor was responsible for his acts. He admitted that he had attacked Mrs. Boswell and then turned on her hsuband when he interferred.

YOUNG WOMEN GET WARRANTS

Show Bites and Bruises to Corroborate Story of Attack.

RESULT OF AUTO TRIP.

Victims Tell of Being Assaulted Early Saturday Morning in Washington Park.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Telling the story of a midnight struggle in Potomac Park, in which she was beaten, bitten, and bruised about the body and face, and during which an attempted assault was made upon her, Miss Edna Beyer, a pretty twenty-one-year old stenographer appeared at the office of Sidney Mudd, Assistant United States District Attorney, today and asked warrants for two of the three men who accompanied a girl companion—Miss Effie Older—and herself on Friday night's automobile ride.

The names of the three men who took the girls on the "joy ride" through the streets of the city, and later to an almost inaccessible part of Potomac Park, were given to Mr. Mudd, who is prosecutor during the absence of District Attorney Given, in the United States branch of the Police Court this week.

Miss Boyer and Miss Older were accompanied to the District Attorney's office by Detectives Fortney and Pratt, of the central office. The statements made to Mr. Mudd by Miss Beyer, in requesting a warrant for two of the three men, were agreed to by Miss Older. It is expected that a warrant will be issued for the arrest of the men today.

Miss Beyer displayed numerous cuts and bruises on her arm and neck, as well as a torn waist. Her shoulders, she said, had been bitten painfully by one of the men.

Both girls live at 121 Massachusetts avenue northeast.

READY TO BLOCK KIDNAPPING

ALL ROADS GUARDED.

District Attorney Conger of Duchess County, N. Y., is Prepared For Eventualities.

Sherbrooke, Quebec, Aug. 25—Physical force may be resorted to in the case of Harry K. Thaw. The clash may come immediately after he crosses the line into Vermont. It will not come in Canada.

But Thaw, when deported, which will likely be Thursday or Friday of this week, will be turned loose in the little hamlet of Norton Mills. There the Vermont authorities, at the request of Acting Governor Glynn, of New York, are expected to take the Matteawan asylum prisoner into custody.

The arrest will be directed by District Attorney Conger, of Duchess county, New York, and Sheriff Hornbeck, both of whom are here. Conger frankly admit's that he fears Thaw's friends may try to rescue him.

"And if they try it," he said significantly today "they will find a reception that will not be a welcome one."

So confident is Conger that his theory is correct that he already has men on the scene watching every one of comes into Norton Mills. His predecessor in office, John Mack, is in that vicinity, and it is believed that Wm. Travers Jerome, now the prosecutor in charge of the New York case, is also there. They have been commissioned to see that the Thaw millions are not allowed to have the prisoner kidnapped at the border as he was from Matteawan.

WHEELS GRIND TRAIN RIDER.

Three Jump From Cars in Safety, Fourth Falls to His Death.

Wilmington, Aug. 25.— Attempting to board a swiftly moving freight train at the Concord station on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad a young man believed to be Joseph Corsey, of Chester, was killed late Friday afternoon. Four young men who had been standing on the station platform when train approached jumped for the cars as they passed. Three of them managed to pull themselves up in safety, but the fourth fell between the train and the platform, then rolled under the wheels. He was living when picked up, but died on the way to the hospital.

GOVERNOR GOING TO DENVER.

Accompanied by Mrs. Mann, he Will Attend Conference of State Executives.

Richmond, Aug. 25.—Governor and Mrs. Mann are now en route to Denver, Col., where the Governor will attend the annual conference of Governors, to be held in that city beginning next Monday. The Governor will be away from the city for about twelve days, but he will keep in daily touch with everything of a public nature here.

This will be the last conference which Governor Mann will attend as a member of the conference, his term of office expiring next February, at which time Henry C. Stuart will become the representative of Virginia in that body.

FIRE SATURDAY NIGHT.

Blaze in a Shed Brings Out Fire Department And Causes Considerable Excitement.

An alarm of fire was sounded at an early hour Saturday night, and a large concourse of persons, hearing that a conflagration had broken out near St. Paul's Church, made a rush from all quarters of the compass towards that edifice. A fire was raging in a shed in the square bounded by Prince, Duke, Royal and Pitt streets and sundry articles having been removed to a place of safety, the flames were speedily extinguished.

It is thought that the fire was the result of carelessness upon the part of persons who nightly trespass in the alley leading from Pitt street. People residing in the vicinity say that colored people, men and women, are often seen invading the alley. The police have had their attention called to this procedure, and they will endeavor to keep such undesirables out of the locality in future.

A royal welcome for the members of the Washington Chamber of Commerce on their visit in search of trade along the Potomac river next month will be extended by Alexandrians. The party will arrive here on the morning of September 10th, and will be met by a delegation of Alexandria's Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants' Association. They will proceed to the City Hall where they will be tendered a reception by Mayor Thomas A. Fisher.

An invitation has been extended by the Alexandria Gazette for a visit to their office where a photograph will be taken of the trade "boosters.'

WAR ON MOSQUITO.

Interesting Lecture on Malaria Spreading Pests.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 25.—"Destroy the mosquito and you eliminate malaria. The day will come when it will be a disgrace and reproch upon a community to have mosquito-breeding places," were the unqualified statements of Dr. Frank Hancock in his address before the Christian Men's Civic League Thursday evening, on the malaria question, before an audience that filled the church to overflow.

He said mosquitoes breed in anything that will hold water as long as ten or twelve days, this being the time necessary in which the little pest becomes full grown and is ready to bite. Broken bottles, cans out of which has been emptied food, water left standing in tubs, barrels, gutters or cesspools, in ditches, along roads, or anywhere water stands is a mosquito-breeding place.

"The way to eliminate the mosquito" he said, "is to leave no water standing anywhere and to drain at cesspools, ditches or any place where water stands, and if this cannot be done, then use kerosene in such places as cannot be drained."

He explained how the mosquito carries malaria. He said that the mosquito is not infected at first with the deadly germ, but as soon as it bites an infected person it becomes infected in a like manner. The germ starts to work in the blood of the person it bites and soon the person is having chills and fever. Then if the residence of this patient is not thoroughly screened he furnishes bacteria for the inoculation of hundreds of others in that neighborhood. Ten to twelve thousand deaths occur each year in the United States from malaria, and eight thousand of these die in the South, where the country is flat and less attention is paid to drainage. He said that several of the Southern States have expended large sums of money with a view of eliminating the mosquito, esecially in Georgia. New Jersey, he said, has recently appropriated $350,000 for the elimination of the mosquito.

Dr. Hancock tried to impress upon his hearers the importance of putting into practice the things that they learn about the preservation of their health. He said the conditions that produce the mosquito very largely rests with the residents of a community; that they can eliminate the breeding places if they will, and that what they cannot do themselves they can have their representatives do.

FUN WITH NEWLYWEDS.

Unusual Episode Attends a Double Wedding in Virginia.

Harrisonburg, Va., Aug. 25.—From the adjoining county of Pendleton comes an unusual story.

Virgil Calhoun and Miss Mary Mullenax and Jesse York and Miss Maud Smith went to Elkton and were married by Rev. F. H. Barron.

After the ceremony a score of jolly friends seized the couples and with a large crowd following made them ride through town on an old broken down rickety wagon. Bailing wire was used to tie the hands of the two brides and Mr. York to the wagon while the other groom, Mr. Calhoun, was forced to follow behind the wagon pushing a baby carriage.

It is said that the grooms are members of the Loyal Order of Moose and that a number of brother Mooses are responsible for the unusual reception.

Members of a rival gang tried to break up a dance of the Midway Athletic Club, on lower West End avenue New York, yesterday, and when they were thrown out returned in an automobile and opened fire on the dancers. One man was killed and another wounded. The police have arrested two men, who were held to await the action of the coroner's jury.

CANNOT STOP CIDER SALE.

West Point Mayor Was Imposing Heavy Fine When Injunction Secured.

Richmond, Aug. 25.—The Honorable Hans Anderson, mayor of West Point, is enjoined from interfering with the sale of apple cider in that town.

Apple cider, be it known, is the only means whereby the thirst of some of the citizens can be at all slacked, the town having some time ago decreed that never again shall liquor be sold there.

The Rose Cliff Fruit Farm, one of the biggest orchards in the State, has apples—more apples than can be sold at this time of the year—and they are ground up and made into cider. Under the laws of the State of Virginia there is no tax on such product, provided it is pure apple cider.

Confident that its particular brand of cider would appeal to the folks of West Point, in the absence of the usual nip, this concern proceeded to offer its product for sale there.

All of which was in opposition to the expressed will of the majority of the voters, and so they "riz up" and protested to Mayor Anderson. The mayor opined that such sales were against the laws as made and provided in dry towns. Thereupon he imposed a fine of $100 and costs against one James O'Connor for such sales. But Mr. O'Connor did not stop at that fine.

So Mayor Anderson again haled Mr. O'Connor to the bar of justice and said that as each day's offense constituted a separate offense, he was constrained to impress on him the majesty of the law, and made the fine $200 and costs.

Parties in interest then took action. The attorneys went before Judge Crump, of the Law and Equity Court, and an injunction was issued against Mayor Anderson and the officers of the town to prevent them from interfering with O'Connor or others who might undertake to sell pure apple cider in that town, Judge Crump holding that there is no law to prevent such sales.

CONSPIRACY IS CHARGED.

Woman is Alleged to Have Rehearsed Testimony.

Luray, Va., Aug. 25.—Charging conspiracy on the part of witnesses for the defense in the preliminary trial of Thomas, Emanuel and Leo Alger, charged with cutting to death Oswald Gray in the Blue Ridge of this county, August 8. Commonwealth Attorney Keyser created a sensation in the case.

Hours before the time set for the trial to begin every available foot of space in the Page county courthouse was occupied by friends of the dead man and the Alger boys. Their father, a hardy specimen of the Blue Ridge, was conspicuous by his absence, though the mother of the boys was in attendance and gave direction and force to the defense. A sister, Mrs. Seldon Coatney was also in attendance, though her testimony was late in being introduced.

Mrs. Coatney is the woman whom Commonwealth's Attorney Keyser intimated in trying to elicit from a witness certain information had prepared, written and had rehearsed testimony she wanted introduced in behalf of her brothers.

The explosion of a soda fountain in a drug store in Providence, R. I., yesterday, injured five persons, including Mr. and Mrs. Hugh T. Kennedy, of Boston, who were struck by a sign blown from the building as they were passing on the other side of the street. Five plate glass windows of the drug store were shattered. None of the injured received serious hurts.

RAILROAD RUMORS.

Passenger and Freight Service Between Lynchburg and Harrisonburg.

Harisonburg, Va., Aug. 25.—That the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Co., will in the near future purchase outright from the Baltimore and Ohio Railway Company the strip of road between Harrisonburg and Lexington and operate a direct passenger and freight service between Lynchburg and Harrisonburg is the statement made here by a well known Lynchburger, who is spending a few days in the valley and who claims to have inside information in regard to the railroad situation.

In the event that such a deal is made, Lynchburgers, as they claim, would capture a large portion of the trade from the valley that now goes to Baltimore. They believe that they would get the lion's share of everything except the millinery trade. Lynchburg concedes the millinery to Baltimore.

INFANT DROWNED.

Falls Into Bucket While Mother is Conversing With Neighbors.

Roanoke, Va., Aug. 25.—The year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brown, of Roanoke county, met a tragic fate a day or two ago when she was drowned in a bucket containing probably four inches of waste water, while her mother and neighbor sat chatting in an adjoining room.

Mrs. Brown was in her dining-room talking to Mrs. Woods, a neighobr, who lives near-by, and who had just called. While they were busy in conversation, the infant toddled into an adjoining room. No attention was paid to her movements until a few moments later her little brother rushed in and said his sister was in the bucket.

Mrs. Brown and her caller rushed into the room and found the child had tipped over into the bucket and was unconscious. They grabbed the little one up and rushed to the home of Mrs. Woods, where, for a quarter of an hour or more, they tried every known means of resuscitation.

MRS. OTEY FOUND DEAD.

Was Widow of Col. Kirkwood Otey, A Confederate Officer.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 25. — Mrs. Lucy M. Otey, relict of Col. Kirkwood Otey, who commanded the Eleventh Virginia Regiment during the civil war, was found dead in her home here yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Otey was a loyal supporter of the Florence Crittenden Home here, and it was largely through her efforts that the annual confederate memorial exercises were organized here years ago and kept up without interruption.

During the war Mrs. Otey worked heroically among the sick and wounded soldiers in local improvised hospitals, and the latter part of her life was given almost wholly to charity and philanthropic enterprises.

Five persons were killed and three badly hurt last night when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by the "Hoosier limited" train on the Chicago, Indianapolis & Louisville railroad, one mile north of St. John's, Ind.

WIRELESS TELEPHONES ON RAILWAY TRAINS.

The Pennsylvania Railroad is to install a wireless telephone system on its train with a view to prevent accidents. Preliminary tests have been made. The conductor in the caboose of a freight train is enabled to talk with the engineer, and will result in lessening the number of brakemen necessary in operating the trains.

While a metallic circuit is used, the system is practically wireless.

An ordinary headpiece instrument is installed in the cab of the engine for the use of the engineer, while the mouthpiece can be attached to some part of the trainman's uniform, so as to leave his hands free to perform his regular duties.

The above statement will bring to mind reminiscences of early railroading. At first considerable difficulty was experienced in apprising the engineer of the fact that stops should be made at certain stations. An engenious conductor tied an ordinary clothes line to a piece of wood and running the rope through a staple in the top of the cab of the engine and across the tender to the first coach, he would pull the string when he wanted to stop. The thumping of the piece of wood against the cab gave the signal. The device was the embryonic bell cord.

Railroad men of half a century or more ago never dreamed a time would come when wireless telegraphy would be used on moving trains.

CANNON LOOKS FOR MEXICAN WAR.

The Gazette and other newspapers in different sections of the country have recently called attention to the fact that the time has come for the United States to put a quietus to the internal chronic disorder in Mexico.

Should present conditions continue much longer, some overt act by the followers of aspirants for the presidency of Mexico will prove a rude awakening to the mother republic.

While President Wilson is no doubt animated by the best motives in keeping hands off, the wisdom of his course is not apparent to all Americans.

Defiance has already been apparent in Mexico, and the longer this is tolerated the bolder it will become until the United States in order to maintain its self-respect will be forced to act.

"Every morning when I wake up I expect to read in the newspapers that we have been forced to war with Mexico," declared Joseph G. Cannon, who passed through Milwaukee Saturday.

"We are bound hand and foot by the Monroe doctrine. We must force the southern republics to maintain order, and the European powers are pressing us to action as a result of the continued claims by European residents of faulty protection of their lives by the Mexicans. It seems that President Huerta is about at the end of his rope and must soon submit to President Wilson's terms or be driven out of power by the rebels."

We are unable to agree with the former speaker on many questions but think that he is right on the remarks which are quoted above.

MOB WOULD LYNCH CREW.

Angered by the Manging of a Baby Beneath it.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 25.—A mob of several hundred persons threatened the lives of a street car crew here Saturday night after Georgia Ottenano, 20 months old, had been struck and draged under a car in the Italian quarter.

As the car stopped the mother crawled beneath, pulled out her baby and held it up, mangled and bleeding

Frank Holmes, motorman, and J. L. Robinson, conductor of the car, alighted to secure the names of witnesses. Instantly a crowd surrounded the men. There were cries of "Lynch them!" The two regained their car only after police had arrived and a promise was made to take the motorman and conductor to a police station.

Holmes and Robinson later were released on bonds of $1,000 each. The child's right foot was amputated. Its life probably will be saved.

COMPLAINANT ARRESTED.

North Caroina Man Charged With Violating White Slave Act.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 25.—Whether Kader Litlerton, alias H .A. Dillon, of Wilmington, N. C., will face a charge of pandering or of violating the Mann act as to traffic in white slaves, will be determined by the police today. He was arrested Saturday at 2 o'cock on Avon street and was locked up at police headqarters until the government authorities can investigate the case.

Litterton, or Dillon, as he calls himself, brought Nellie Jordan, also of Wilmington, N . C., to Norfolk. They stopped first at a hotel in Portsmouth, Friday night the men is said to have paced placed her in a house on Washington street. He complained to the police of the first precinct early last night that he had been robbed of a watch and $80 in money by the Jordan girl. Investigation by Detective Dednam revealed the fact that he had brought the woman here from North Carolina. Litterton admits that he has a wife and four childwren living in Wilmington.

WAGON CRUSHES CHILD.

Trenton, Aug. 25.—Katherine Wochoska, 2 years old, was crushed to death under a bric kwagon yesterday. When Walter Buchanan, driver of the wagon, saw the little one run into the front wheel he fell over backward in the wagon in a swoon. The mother of the child heard her cries and picked up the mangled body and ran home, where neighbors found her clasping the dead baby to her breast in bed.

FATAL RESULT OF ARGUMENT.

Farmer Near Aseville, N. C., Instantly Killed by Tenant.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 25.—R. F. Smathers, 35 years old, a well-known farmer and large land owner at Canton, near here,was shot and instantly killed Saturday night by John Waldroup, a tenant, on one of Mr. Smathers farms. The shooting occurred over some trivial argument, Waldroupusi ng a shot gun and blowing off Smathers' head. Waldroup escaped and is being hunted through the mountains by a band of armed men.

McKinley Gibson, who was standing a short distance away at the time of the shooting, declared that he heard the two men arguing about a lock and key and heard Waldroup say "I'll get my gun and put you out of business."

A few seconds later the fatal shot was fired. Smathers died almost instantly and Waldroup took to the mountains, with which he is perfectly familiar. A posse was quickly formed and went on his trail but at midnight no trace of the murderer had been found.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Oriola, Pa., that is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. It is one of the most successful preparations that has been discovered. Thousands have testified to its value. For sale by all dealers.

TOWN HAS BUSINESS MANAGER

Charlottesville Council Will Try Experiment for a Year.

Charlottesville, Va., Agg. 25.—The City Council has made provision for a year's trial of the municipal business manager plan, and Mayor A. V. Conway has been selected as manager for the purpose of experiment, and will enter upon his duties on September 1 at the nominal salary of $50 a month.

The Mayor has the means to be independent of financial considerations and is profoundly interested in the city's welfare, and expressed a willingness to undertake the task. The responsibilities which will devolve upon him are those which the several committees of the council have been charged with heretofore by a peculiar and, in the opinion of many students of municipal government, mischievous mixture of legislative and administrative powers. The council committees are not shorn of powers. If a committee representing a department unanimously disapproves of any intended act of the Mayor's it can force the reference of the matter to the council for its action.

CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.

Lose Lives When Home is Destroyed by Fire.

Toano, Va, Augg. 25.—Three children, two boys, aged three and five years, respectively, and an infant girl, eighteen months old, were burned to death Saturday at Diascond, a small village about five miles from Toano, when the home of Oliver Harkaday was destroyed by fire. The dead are Mary Elizabeth and William Harkday children of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harkaday, of Diascond, and James A. Bozarth, Jr., son of James A. Bozarth, of Williamsburg.

Mrs. Harkada had been away from the house only a few moments when flames were seen bursting from the windows of the second floor, and she and her neighbors made frantic efforts to reach the children, but they were unsuccessful, an dthe charred bones of the little ones were found among the ruins of the house several hours later. The origin of the fire is unknown.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Thomas H. Kimlin was fatally shot by Lorenzo Barrett, near Hopewell Junction, N. Y., yesterday, and Barrett is in jail charged with murder. Barrett is 70 years old and Kimlin 60. The two men and Mrs. Catherine Havens had dined together and Barrett complained of the manner in which Kimlin prepared the food. While Kemlin was dancing with Mrs. Havens Barrett became angered. A quarrel followed, and when Kimlin walked out of the door he was followed by Barrett, who is alleged to have picked up a rifle and shot Kimlin through the heart.

Within a short time after he had saved Louis Phillips from drowning, William Zurelbry, one of the oldest citizens of Taylorsport, Ky., was shot and killed by the man whom he had rescued late Saturday night. Phillips and several other men were rowing across the Ohio river when their skiff upset. Phillips was unable to swim, and Zurelbry who witnessed the accident, plunged into the river and brought him ashore. Shortly afterwards it is said Phillips entered the home of Zurelbry with a rifle. He asked Zurelbry if he was the man who saved him, and being answered in the affirmative, aimed the weapon and shot the old man through the heart. Phillips then made his escape across the river, though a posse fired numerous shots at him. He had not been apprehended at a late hour tonight.

The French aviator, M. Montalent, and a passenger, M. Metivies, were killed yesterday by the collapse of their hydroaeroplane at Rouen.

GAS IN HIS SKIN KILLS MAN.

Victim of Disease So Rare the Doctors Were Powerless.

Baltimore, Aug. 25.—With his right leg swollen to four times its natural size through the rapid accummulation of a poisonous gas in the tissues William Schnickling, of Fullerton, died Thursday night at St. Joseph's Hospital from one of the rarest diseases known. Forty hours after his leg had become infected with a germ —known only as the gas bacillus—he was dead. The infection, which in a short time had gone from his ankle to his hip, started from the breaking of a bone in his right ankle.

So little is known about the disease and the germ that causes it that it has only an improvised name, describing its chief effect upon the victim. According to the authorities at the hospital the germ entered the man's leg at the time of the accident and began to multiply throwing off all the time a poisonous gas which swelled the tissues.

ONE APPLICATION RESTORES THE COLOR TO GREY OR FADED HAIR

Simple—Easy—Safe—With Hay's Hair Health

Why have unsightly grey hair—why look prematurely grey and years older than you are—why look unattractive and lose your charm and beauty?

If your hair is grey, faded, streaked looking, Hay's Hair Health will change it—bring back the natural color, life and lustre quickly, effectively. No one can tell that you are using it. You'll be surprised at the quick results from a few applications, the grey hairs will gradually disappear, leaving your hair in its natural, youthful condition, full of life, radiance and beauty.

For those who are troubled with Dandruff there is nothing that will relieve the irritation and itching and cleanse the scalp so quickly and thoroughly as Hay's Hair Health. Dandruff causes the hair to turn grey, become thin and faded, and gradually to fall out. Druggists will refund your money if you are not satisfied with Hay's Hair Health after a trial.

Free: Sign this adv. and take it to the following druggists and get a 50c. bottle of Hay's Hair Health and a 25c. cake of Harfina Soap for 50c.; or $1.00 bottle of Hay's Hair Health and two 25c. cakes of Harfina Soap Free, for $1.

MINISTER IN TROUBLE.

Accused Has Trouble Pending Church Trial in Chicago.

Broadway, N. J., Aug. 25.—Because of a written confession that Harry Smith, treasurer of the trustees and head of the stewards of the Methodist Church, of Broadway, obtained from Miss Bertha Van Sycle, the Rev. Harry W. Farraday pastor of the church, has been suspended pending a trial.

Miss Van Sycle is fifteen years old, the prettiest girl in Broadway, and looks like a young woman of nineteen. She is the daughter of Frank Van Sycle, who is employed by a cement company at Easton, Pa., not far from Broadway.

The Rev. Mr. Farraday moved his family from Newark to Broadway in April last, after he had been ordained, and Broadway was given to him as his first pastorate. He continued to work at his collection business in Newark, and spent a couple of days a week at the parsonage with his wife and family.

The family of the minister went to Ocean Grove some time ago, and on August 10 two members of the congregation complained to Mr. Smith that they did not like the appearance of things at the parsonage in the absence of Mrs. Farraday when the minister came up to preach. The name of the Van Sycle girl was used, and Smith says that he decided to investigate, did investigate, and obtained a written confession from the child that there had been misconduct.

This, he says, he presented to Presiding Elder Cole, with the result that a meeting of the trustees of the church was called, and it was decided that charges should be preferred and the minister suspended pending the hearing of them.

The Rev. Mr. Farraday is thirty-five years old.

INTERJECTION OF RELIGION.

President of New York Civic League Sees Hands of Jesuits in Issue.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 25.—The issue of religion has been brought into the Sulzer-Glynn conflict over the governorship causing one of the greatest sensations that has developed since William Sulzer was impeached and Martin H. Glynn claimed the title of Acting governor.

There is wrath in the Glynn camp as a result. The issue was raised by Rev. O. B. Miller, president of the State Civic League, who is supporting Sulzer, and charging all sorts of crimes against Charles F. Murphy and the Tammany legislators.

The issue was raised through the medium of a pamphlet, bundles of which were laid upon the press table at the executive chamber. One extract follows:

"Many people think that the real cause of the present Sulzer-Murphy fight in this state is not political, but religious; that it is not political graft, but religious bigotry that is at the bottom of this whole trouble. Governor Sulzer is a Presbyterian, Lieutenant-Governor Glynn is a Roman Catholic. Whether justly or not, yet the people in this State in the past have said by their votes that they did not want a Roman Catholic for governor.

Many people think that in the present situation in this state, they see the fine hand of Jesuits determined to make one Roman Catholic governor of this state, even if they must impeach illegally, and brutally, throw out of office a Protestant governor, in order to put in a Catholic. The Jesuits have made trouble in the politics of every country of the world where they have gone. They have been expelled at different times from almost every country in Europe, because of their treasonable interference with politics and with their attempts to overthrow the government they are beginning here.

"We do not identify the Jesuits with the Roman Catholics any more than we identify the Democratic party with Tammany. But all Tammany men are Democrats, and all Jesuits are Roman Catholics. But thousands of Democrats denounce the base methods of Tammany, and Roman Catholict denounce the treasonable methods of the Jesuits.

"It is an interesting fact, however, that about three-fourths of those assemblymen who voted to impeach Governor Sulzer are Catholics and about three-fourths of those who voted against impeachment are Protestants."

Good Reason for His Enthusiasm.

When a man has suffered for several days with colic, diarrhoea, and other form of bowel complaint and is then cured sound and well by one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarhoea Remedy, as is often the case, it is but natural that he should be enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, and especially is this the case of a severe attack when life is threatened. Try it when in need of such a remedy. It never fails. Sold by all druggists.

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Courthouse of said City on Thursday, the 21st day of August, 1913. Present Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

Abel Douglass,
Vs. In Chancery.
Mary E. Douglass.

Upon the application of the complainant, Abel Douglass, stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, Mary E. Douglass, the Court on the 21st day of August, 1913, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain a decree divorcing the complainant from the defendant, a divorce from bed and board, (a mensa et thoro) on the ground of wilful abandonment and desertion without just cause or excuse on the part of the defendant and to obtain a divorce absolute(a vinculo matrimoni) when the said desertion has continued for a period of more than three years last past, and an affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant, Mary E. Douglass, has not been found within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that she appear within fifteen days after due publication of said order of publication and do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria Va., that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of said city on or before the 1st day of September, 1913, that being the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered, and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court, addressed to the said non resident defendant at 414 Erie Avenue, Williamsport, Pa., her last known place of abode.

INTERNATIONAL FLEET.

Naval Pageant to be Gathered in Hampton Roads in 1915.

Washington, Aug. 25.—In addition to marking the formal opening of the Panama Canal by the celebration of the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco in 1915, Secretary of the Navy Daniels, is now at work on a plan to further perpetuate the memory of that year by holding a naval pageant, the like of which has never been seen in the history of the world.

The Secretary of the Navy is preparing to issue formal invitation to all the nations of the world to send the greater part of their fleets to Hampton Roads, Va., in February or March, 1915, to steam through the Panama Canal and up the Pacific Coast to San Francisco, remaining in the harbor for a month before returning home.

The full immensity of this scheme does not appear at first glance, but consider the sights afforded by all the fleets of the world at anchor off the Virginia Capes, their sleek sides glistening with white "peace paint," their banners, their guns cased in the variicolored tarpaulins, affected by the various nations, and smoke from their funnels curling lazily upward as their sailors call from deck to deck. It will be a spectacle such as the world has never seen and such as may not be witnessed again.

The invincible Spanish armada would be as a collection of fishing boats to this great world fleet. The most formidable navy of any single nation would be powerless against the attack of one-fifth of this vast gathering. The combined broadsides of this fleet could lay in crumbling ashes the entire city of New York, while the fleet lay off shore out of reach of the shore batteries.

Present Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

Ethel Donch, Complainant,
Vs. In Chancery.
Hugo P. Donch, Respondent.

Upon the application of the complainant stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, the court on this 13th day of August, 1913, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain for the plaintiff an absolute divorce on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment for a period of more than three years before the filing hereof, to obtain alimony pendente lite and costs and counsel fees and permanent alimony, to obtain permission of court to resume her maiden name of Ethel Robertson, and for general relief.

And an affidavit having been filed that the defendant, Hugo P. Donch is not a resident of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that he do appear here within fifteen days after due publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia, that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of said City on or before the next rule day of this court after this order is entered and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the clerk of this court addressed to the said non-resident defendant, Hugo P. Donch, addressed to No. 904 Third Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., the last known place of abode of the defendant.

STATION AGENT MURDERED.

Train Conductor Finds Body of Murdered Man at Desk.

Scottsville, Va., Aug. 25.—When the conductor of a Chesapeake and Ohio train stepped into the local station at 3 o'clock yesterday morning he found Richard W. Harrison, the telegraph operator and agent, dead at the key, with a bullet hole through his chest, near the collar. The bullet took a downward course, just missed the heart and came out at the lower left region of the chest. Harrison had been dead only a few minutes, as he had taken a train order at 2:23.

An automatic revolver was in his right hand when the body was found, but owing to the position of the weapon and the fact that a blank shell could not be found the theory is held that Harrison was shot while defending the office from robbery.

Bloodhounds were sent here from the State farm, but failed to scent a trail.

Another operator in the same office was fired upon several months ago, and narrowly escaped being killed.
